

Source Protection Committee

Meeting Summary

SOURCE PROTECTION COMMITTEE MEETING 51 & 52

May 17 (extended to May 22) and June 15, 2012 at Asphodel-Norwood Community Centre, Norwood.

Revisions to Source Protection Plan Policies and Content

The Source Protection Committee dedicated these meetings to reviewing the comments received during the consultation period and making decisions on whether to make amendments to the draft source protection policies in the following categories:

- Change in Policy Approach
- Suggestions to Promote Consistency & Allow for Practical Implementation
- Recommendations to Improve Policies Relying on Land Use Planning
- Minor Editorial Changes
- Concerns Outside Scope of the Source Protection Plans

Overview of Consultation

Attendance at the six public meetings held between April 10 and April 18 were as follows:

- Peterborough – 29
- Havelock – 10
- Baltimore – 12
- Minden – 13
- Lindsay – 29
- Codrington – 38

Comments were received from the following bodies:

- Municipalities
  - Otonabee-South Monaghan
  - Prince Edward County
  - Asphodel-Norwood
  - Galway, Cavendish & Harvey
  - Cavan Monaghan
  - Clarington
  - Cobourg
  - Havelock-Belmont Methuen
  - Marmora and Lake
  - Trent Hills

- Kawartha Lakes
- Durham (TCC)
- Durham (CTC)

- Provincial & Federal Ministries
  - Economic Development & Innovation
  - Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs
  - Consumer Services & Technical Standards & Safety Authority
  - Transportation
  - Transport Canada
  - Environment Canada

- Others
  - Conservation Authorities/Source Protection Authorities – Lower Trent, Crowe Valley, Ganaraska Region, Kawartha & Otonabee
  - Haliburton, Kawartha, Pine Ridge District Health
  - Landowners & Stakeholders – 15 Landowners & 5 Stakeholders

All individual landowners & organization who submitted comments will receive a response concurrent with the second consultation period.

Next Meeting

The next Source Protection Committee meeting will be held Wednesday, September 12, 2012 at the Asphodel-Norwood Community Centre, Norwood.